ORDER ADDING PRIORITY MAIL CONTRACT 46
TO THE COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST

(Issued November 2, 2012)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Postal Service seeks to add a new product identified as Priority Mail Contract 46 to the competitive product list.¹ For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

¹ Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Priority Mail Contract 46 to Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Unredacted Governors' Decision, Contract, and Supporting Data, October 18, 2012 (Request).

II. BACKGROUND

On October 18, 2012, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3642 and 39 CFR 3020.30 et seq., the Postal Service filed the Request, along with supporting documents. In the Request, the Postal Service asserts that Priority Mail Contract 46 is a competitive product, and one that is “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. 3632(b)(3). Id. at 1. The Postal Service further asserts that the prices and classification underlying the contract are supported by Governors’ Decision No. 11-6.² Among the supporting documents, the Postal Service included a statement supporting the Request, a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. 3633(a), a copy of Governors’ Decision No. 11-6, and a contract related to the proposed new product. In addition, the Postal Service submitted an application for non-public treatment of materials to maintain redacted portions of the contract, customer-identifying information, and related financial information filed under seal. Request, Attachment F.³

On October 19, 2012, the Commission issued an order establishing the two dockets, appointing a Public Representative, and providing interested persons with an opportunity to comment.⁴

² Decision of the Governors of the United States Postal Service on the Establishment of Prices and Classifications for Domestic Competitive Agreements, Outbound International Competitive Agreements, Inbound International Competitive Agreements, and Other Non-Published Competitive Rates, March 22, 2011 (Governors’ Decision No. 11-6).

⁴ Notice and Order Concerning Addition of Priority Mail Contract 46 to the Competitive Product List, October 19, 2012 (Order No. 1506).

III. COMMENTS

The Public Representative filed comments on November 1, 2012.⁵ No other interested person submitted comments. The Public Representative states that he has reviewed the Request, supporting documentation, and supporting financial models. Id. at 2. He believes that the Postal Service has demonstrated that the contract appears to satisfy the requirements of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a). Id. He expresses concern, however, that the data provided do not demonstrate that the contract will cover its costs in the second and third years of the contract. Id. at 3. The Public Representative notes, however, that the contract contains an annual adjustment mechanism that may allow the contract to cover its costs in the second and third year. Id. He also acknowledges that the Postal Service is responsible for filing the financial results of the contract in each year's Annual Compliance Report, which will enable the Commission to ensure that the requirements of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a) continue to be met. Id.

The Public Representative concludes that Priority Mail Contract 46 should be added to the competitive product list. Id. at 2.

IV. COMMISSION ANALYSIS

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the instant contract, the supporting data filed under seal, and the Public Representative's comments.

Product list requirements. The Commission's statutory responsibilities when evaluating the Request entail assigning Priority Mail Contract 46 to either the market dominant or competitive product list. See 39 U.S.C. 3642(b)(1); 39 CFR 3020.34. In addition, the Commission must consider the availability and use of private sector enterprises engaged in delivering the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. See 39 U.S.C. 3642(b)(3); 39 CFR 3020.32(f), (g), and (h).

⁵ Public Representative Comments on Postal Service Request to Add Priority Mail Contract 46 to Competitive Product List, November 1, 2012 (PR Comments). Concurrently with the PR Comments, the Public Representative filed a Motion for Late Acceptance of Comments due to the closure of all Federal government offices. See Motion of Public Representative for Late Acceptance of Comments, November 1, 2012. That motion is granted.

The Postal Service asserts that it provides Priority Mail service in a highly competitive market, that other shippers who provide similar services constrain its bargaining position, and that it can therefore neither raise prices nor decrease service, quality, or output without risking the loss of business to competitors. Request, Attachment D at 2. The Postal Service affirms that the contract partner supports the Request, that expedited shipping is widely available from private firms, and that it is unaware of any small business concerns that could offer comparable services to the contract partner. Id. at 3.

Having considered the relevant statutory and regulatory requirements and the Postal Service's supporting justification, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Contract 46 is appropriately classified as competitive and added to the competitive product list.

Cost considerations. Because Priority Mail Contract 46 is a competitive product, the Postal Service must also show that the contract covers its attributable costs, contributes to the Postal Service's institutional costs, and does not cause any market dominant products to subsidize competitive products. See 39 U.S.C. 3633(a); 39 CFR 3015.5.

As part of its Request, the Postal Service submitted a certified statement that the contract should satisfy the requirements of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a). Request, Attachment E. In addition, the Postal Service filed supporting revenue and cost data showing that the contract should cover its costs during its first year. The Public Representative raises concerns about the lack of data for subsequent years of the contract. PR Comments at 3. As noted by the Public Representative, however, the contract includes an annual rate adjustment provision. Id.; see also Request, Attachment B at 5. This provision should allow the contract's revenues to cover costs in years two and three. Thus, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Contract 46 complies with the provisions applicable to rates for competitive products. As part of its Annual Compliance Determination proceedings, the Commission will review the contract's financial performance for consistency with section 3633(a).

Other considerations. By its terms, the contract becomes effective on the first business day after the date that the Commission issues all necessary regulatory approvals. Request, Attachment B at 2. The contract expires 3 years from the effective date, unless, among other things, either party terminates the agreement with 30 days' written notice to the other party. Id. at 3.

If the instant contract is terminated prior to the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission.

Within 30 days after the instant contract terminates, the Postal Service shall file the annual (contract year) costs, volumes, and revenues disaggregated by weight and zone associated with the contract.

In conclusion, the Commission approves Priority Mail Contract 46 as a new product. The revision to the competitive product list appears below the signature of this Order and is effective immediately.

V. ORDERING PARAGRAPHS

It is ordered:

1. Priority Mail Contract 46 (MC2013-6 and CP2013-6) is added to the competitive product list as a new product under Negotiated Service Agreements, Domestic. The revision to the competitive product list appears below the signature of this Order and is effective immediately.
2. The Postal Service shall notify the Commission if the instant contract ends prior to the scheduled expiration date as discussed in this Order.

3. Within 30 days after the instant contract terminates, the Postal Service shall file the annual (contract year) costs, volumes, and revenues disaggregated by weight and zone associated with the Contract.
4. The Secretary shall arrange for publication in the Federal Register of an updated product list reflecting the change made in this Order.

By the Commission.

Acting Secretary

CHANGE IN MAIL CLASSIFICATION SCHEDULE
CHANGE IN PRODUCT LIST

The following material represents changes to the product list codified in Appendix A to 39 CFR part 3020, subpart A—Mail Classification Schedule. These changes reflect the Commission's order in Docket Nos. MC2013-6 and CP2013-6. The Commission uses two main conventions when making changes to the product list. New text is underlined. Deleted text is struck through.
